

I disagree with Chairman Powell's position to force thru the consolidation of media in this country. He should listen to the many groups that represent the concerns of millions of Americans that this act will bring about less competition and even less independent information!